Elections provide opportunity to lead, serve

Eight Avila College Student Government (ACSG) Senators (one for each academic department) and two Executive Officers (President and Secretary/Treasurer) will be elected by the student body through a ballot by mail process.

This year, ballots will be mailed by March 7 to each student's residence with information about each candidate to ensure knowledgeable voting; the opportunity to give feedback; and, to vote for Avila's Outstanding Faculty Member.

Ballots must be returned by Tuesday, March 19 at 6 p.m. Students interested in running for office may pick up a Nomination Petition available in the Office of Student Life.

Completed petitions must be returned to the Office of Student Life by 4 p.m., Thursday, February 21.

Leadership Opportunity Forum

In conjunction with ACSG elections, the Office of Student Life will be presenting sessions dealing with leadership opportunities in Avila's student government (ACSG), programming board (SUB), residence hall concerns (RHG), and clubs and organizations.

The "Leadership Opportunity Forums" will be Tuesday, February 12 at 8:30 p.m.; Wednesday, February 13 at noon; Thursday, February 14 at 6 p.m.; Monday, February 18 at 6 p.m.; Tuesday, February 19 at noon; and Wednesday, February 20 at 8:30 p.m. Each forum will be in the Barefoot Room, Marian Centre.

Please note that one needs to attend only one of the three sessions offered. Content of the three sessions will be consistent so that interested students may choose the one session convenient for him/her to attend.

A New Year's Quiz: When was the last time you...

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME YOU...

1. visited your grandmother or some elderly person to chat and spread a little joy
2. remembered there are thirty-five million Africans starving to death and did something to relieve the situation
3. sacrificed candy, coke, cigarettes and gave the money to someone in need of food, heat, or clothing
4. wrote your congressman and expressed concern about social justice
5. visited a child in the hospital and brightened his/her day
6. attended a lecture or read an article to become informed on crucial national issues
7. considered involvement in a volunteer program by sharing your time and talents

The Office of Campus Ministry works with students to provide opportunities for Christian involvement. Programs now in existence are Clown Ministry, Nursing Home Visitation, and other volunteer services.

As Clown Ministers students have visited the elderly, children in hospitals, and people of all ages to spread peace, love, joy. Other students have chosen to adopt an elderly person in a nursing home. These students visit their new found friends to share, to read or write letters, to talk, to walk, or to simply smile with them. Another student visits the home of an elderly blind woman. She makes it possible for this lady to share her musical talents in a new way. The lady is no longer able to play the piano but she now enjoys listening to the student play the piano and sing. Perhaps this lady will once again play the piano with the assistance of this student. Some other students have chosen to collect food, money, and clothing and to distribute these as the need arises.

Everyone on Avila campus is busy studying, teaching, or working and there isn't much time for extras. However, we as Christians are called to respond to the words of Jesus, "Whatever you do to one of these the least of my brethren you do unto me." How have we responded to this challenge? What will be our response in 1985?

Do you have ideas, concerns, questions, or suggestions on how we at Avila can respond to the challenge of Christ. Contact the Office of Campus Ministry. Call ext. 264 or come to 722.

Museum, talent, art

Ah yes — the joys and pains of growing up! Everyone remembers them. There was your bout with chicken pox and that first day in kindergarten. And don't forget the day you earned one of many scout patches. How about your boyhood or girlhood career of delivering newspapers?

The Kansas City Museum has researched and produced an exhibit which captures all of these memories and more in "Yesterday's Children: Growing Up In Kansas City 1900-1950," on display from Saturday, December 1-Sunday, February 17, 1985.

The Museum, located at 3218 Gladstone Blvd. in Kansas City, is open from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays and 12:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. Sundays. There is no admission fee. Donations, however, are

Kansas City's Worlds of Fun will conduct auditions in January to fill a variety of entertainment positions. Noted for the quality of its show presentations, the park has openings for talented young people to perform in a country music show, a new nostalgic rock 'n' roll review and featured entertainment throughout the internationally-themed park.

"As a cast member in Worlds of Fun's shows, gifted young people have the opportunity to earn over $4500 while gaining valuable experience in the performing arts. During a season our entertainers perform for over 1.3 million guests. For many of our performers it's a once in a lifetime experience and for other entertainers at Worlds of Fun it's been a stepping stone to a successful career in show business," commented Gary Noble, director of show productions for Worlds of Fun.

Performance positions are available for pop, rock and country singers, as well as tap and jazz dancers.

For additional information on Worlds of Fun's 1985 talent auditions, contact the show productions department at (816) 459-9276.

Fifty-six works from the Jones Road Print Shop will be on display from December 1 to January 20 in the Southwest Mezzanine at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, Kansas City, Missouri. The graphics studio founded by printer/artist William Weege in 1971, has always been at the forefront of inventiveness in adapting diverse materials and techniques to the printing process.

The Museum is open Tuesday to Saturday from 10 to 5 p.m. and on Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m. Children 18 and under and students are admitted free, adults $2.00. All are free on Sundays.

ACSG Hotline provides variety of information

By Linda Morris

Avila recently installed the Avila Activities Hotline. Sponsored by the Avila College Student Government (ACSG), the hotline provides information about campus activities. Students, faculty, and staff can call the hotline at 942-9012 and listen to the pre-recorded message; they have an opportunity at the conclusion of the tape to make comments and suggestions.

The hotline tapes, which are changed weekly, include information about sports, theater performances, clubs and organizations.

Information about the snow schedule and class cancellations will be on the hotline next semester when the weather is bad. This will let students know if they have class before driving to Avila.

If clubs or organizations on campus would like to have information about meeting times or upcoming events placed on the hotline tapes, they need to contact Donna Malone, Chairperson for the Informational Task Force.

Since the hotline tapes are changed every Monday, Donna must receive all information by Friday that is to be included in the following week's tape.

Donna can be contacted through the Office of Student Life in Marian Centre. Students can also leave messages in her mailbox in the Student Activities conference Room which is located across from the dining room in Marian Centre.
